Preface

In the science community, a definite conclusion about how the earth was born has yet to be reached. In this book, the history of the earth is disclosed in the style of a story based on Akashic Records of heaven. It is composed in an omnibus style, with each chapter independent to some degree from the others and each spoken by a distinct person.

Chapter 1 is spoken by Yahweh, such as its voice resounding all over heaven and earth. It shows the readers the figure of earth in the past and the present, and it emphasizes the importance of now as the time. You have to realize that the destiny of the future earth is determined by the choice of each of us, who live on this earth.

Chapter 2 is spoken by St. Antonius who is the Divine Spirit of Sun. It refers to what kind of idea, the solar family was made based on, and what kind of mission earth, so called 'the prince of galaxy' is in charge of. Do you know why the asteroid between Mars and Jupiter exists in such a form? Do you know how St. Antonius has felt by seeing the asteroid? I would like all of the people on earth to know of this matter.

How were human-beings born on earth? You may think they have branched from a common ape ancestor in the process of evolution and eventually they have reached the present form. But the truth is different from this. Actually our ancestors came by riding on the starship from other planets several hundred millions years ago. You may think it is a joke. However, there is a record in Akashic. Chapter 3 describes the hard efforts of our ancestors in order to make their body adaptable to earth environment.

In Chapter 4, the law is arranged and simply described. There is a law in our universe. That is not a law made by human-beings. The law has existed since much earlier than before human-beings appeared. It is determined by God. What is the law which exists in the universe? It has not been told correctly until now. Our human-beings' struggle such as the distinction of the race and the religion could be caused by the ignorance of the law.

In Chapter 5, the past several civilizations on earth are described.

The current civilization is not the only one in earth's history. The traces of others certainly exist, but it is just too difficult for us to find out, since most of them had been sunk under the sea. The spirits resident in the Ninth Dimension World are our guides. Several of those spirit guides took charge of each civilization and have been invoked it. Those Ninth Dimension Spirits have educated us by repeating the civilization experiments.

In chapter 6, Manu, one of Ninth Dimension speaks about the law of men and women. In this civilization, the law of men and women has seldom been disclosed. I suppose you may think it is quite common that we exist being separated as men and women. You may not consider the meaning deeply. However, it has a very deep meaning from the point of view of Yang and Yin.

Divine Spirit of Sun, St. Antonius calls earth as a planet of 'ultimate dualism'. It indicates the ultimate dualism of Yang and Yin, as well as the ultimate figure of light and darkness resides on earth. You can find in this book, the dualism of Yang and Yin as a theme which streams through the former part, in six chapters. The theme of the latter six chapters is the dualism of the light and the darkness.

Chapter 7 is spoken by Archangel Michael about "a man who wanted to be God". Why was Luci turned into a fallen angel? Its details are explained. Michael has fought against Luci for a long time. However, please do not keep the only image of Michael as one who always stands in the name of the justice and defeats daemons, and try bringing your imagination nearer to his true sympathy by knowing how much he has been involved in the matter of Luci ever since.

Atlantis civilization which was the previous civilization resembles the current one very much. Actually, from the point of view of the science technology or the spiritual powers, Atlantis was far beyond the level of the current one. But, you may wonder why such an advanced civilization was destroyed. I would like all of you, who live in this civilization now, to think of this matter. Chapter 8 is spoken by the Maitreya who was one of the persons in charge of the Atlantis civilization.

In chapter 9, "the truth of the back world" is described by Moses. Especially in the current civilization, it was decided that the spiritual powers should be sealed up from the beginning. In the past civilizations, it was true that excessive developments of spiritual powers had caused the collapse of civilization. By sealing up the spiritual powers, the human-beings on earth often believe too much in materialism. It was easily expected from the beginning of the plan. And it was decided by the Ninth Dimension spirits, who did not wish civilization to collapse at whatever the price. However, it is necessary for us to have the power of the creation in order to raise civilization to the next step. We must know what the real spiritual power is and how it works. Furthermore, let us think of what kind of world the back world was, which has been hated until now.

In chapter 10, the current civilization is spoken from the point of view of Ninth Dimension. A freedom of the individual will is guaranteed to the people on earth. Collective thoughts of individual free will surely determine the orientation of the civilization. However, even if we are not aware of it, the will of Ninth Dimension spirits are reflected in each civilization. What kind of feelings or thoughts had the Ninth Dimension spirits kept in their mind in order to build this civilization? Several of Ninth Dimension spirits descended on earth and guided people directly. I wish you could review the civilization from the point of view of Ninth Dimension spirits.

Most of you have never thought of the Divine Spirit dwelling on Earth. Well, Earth is not just the cloud of mines. Divine Spirits of Earth called Terra and Gaia dwell amongst us. Whether we recognize them or not, they have been nursing and nurturing us for a long time, from the beginning until now. In chapter 11, Gaia is talking desperately to the human-beings, each of us on earth. I would be glad if you could listen carefully to Gaia's affectionate whispers.

In the last chapter, this plan of earth's shift up is described by El-Ranty, who is also Yahweh. What is really the shift up which is the desperate wish of all spirits of the Ninth Dimension on Earth? El-Ranty was born on earth in a body for the very first time since he immigrated to Earth. And when you know his wish, then, what would you do? Each of us is all facing to the decision time. Please think of it as your personal problem and make a decision once and for all.

I wonder what kind of impression you have got after reading this book. Did you consider this just as a sort of a tale or an exciting fiction novel? Or you felt that we are facing to a very critical situation. Our decision will affect and make the future destiny of Earth. Could you share such a feeling with us? It is truly up to you, all of your free will and choice, based on "the freedom of the individual will".

Though, we did not realize, we, all are held alive by such deep, warm and enormous love and affection by invisible spirits such as our earth parents, high ranked spirits until today. We would be delighted when you remember it again, if you could think of the gratitude to whom and for what you receive, and try to live through your precious life time. This is our only little wish to the readers, all of you.

The former half of this book was published in the beginning of May, 2009, and the latter half is scheduled to be published in the winter of this year. We have been working for the translation in parallel with the publish of the original Japanese version, and the translation into English has been done here. So, we are going to print a temporal version for the promotion.

Forward

I am Amarie of Lemuria Renaissance.

In the book entitled The Prayer of Gaia originally published in Japanese by Tokuma and also translated to English by the Lemuria Foundation, I have presented messages sent from the various divine spirits beginning with God Aum, the Divine Spirits of Sun and Earth. Even if we haven't been aware of their existence, these divine spirits have been loving and nurturing us since time immemorial. Especially to Gaia as the mother of the earth, I myself have been impressed by the overwhelming depth of the love that accompanies her all-encompassing tenderness. We earth people have been made alive on the earth as the body of Terra and Gaia so that we may learn of that love.

It was the autumn of 2007 that the Ninth Dimension made this request of me: "Please convey to the people the history of the earth since it was created." We were also told to send out a bible for the coming ages. Actually the book was already in existence in heaven. You might think, "Why not let us know the contents and publish it. There should be no problem at all." However, were we to act in that way, we would be a puppet of heaven.

Heaven usually does not disclose everything. They have been watching how we have been behaving, respecting our free will. When an extreme failure has occurred, they give us an attention. However, when there is not so much of a problem, they give regard to our free of will. The guidance from heaven generally has been done in such a way. In order to publish a bible of the coming age, several members of Lemuria Renaissance have been called.

All the history of the earth has been recorded in the Akashic Records in heaven. I myself was shown the record in the form of images of various scenes of the past earth by accessing the record. But I could not get to know how the Divine Spirits of the Sun and Earth felt when they created the planets of the solar system, unless I directly ask those divine spirits. Honestly speaking, most of the messages recorded in the Prayer of Gaia had been given during the process of editing the bible. Those messages are being disclosed in the book just as they are.

In the creation of Project Eden, our plan has been to split the entire book into 12 chapters, each of which was to be delegated to specific members of our group, who would then create their respective manuscript. The chapters have been made independently to some degree, and offer a conception of the whole image of the earth from ancient times. That is the image that we expected. In particular, it is hoped that each of you will understand the figure of the earth from the viewpoint of the Ninth Dimension and know how far the important moment is from our time now. That is the wish of the Ninth Dimension Spirits of our earth.

To avoid an unbalance of chapters, Haruhiko Hirahara edited the entire manuscript once they were all created. Part of the contents might overlap with the Prayer of Gaia. However, since each chapter is presented by distinct personality, I believe it will offer a story that could well be enjoyable for all people.

The Ninth Dimension Spirits, beginning El-Ranty, have been guiding us for a long time. The earth up until now has been referred to as an elementary school level planet. With this current opportunity, it shall be moving to the junior high school level planet. That is in line with the prayers of all the Ninth Dimensions of the earth. That will have been vibrated to me firmly.

Here we named this book 'Project Eden', where Eden was disclosed recently as actually Elden, a garden of light, the memorial place El-Ranty landed first he came to this planet, hoping to realize a planet of a new style of love. El stands for light, and Den stands for a garden.

I cannot know how far this book comes close to being the future bible. We owe that final judgment to the readers of this book and to future earth people. I believe the objective of this book being published has been achieved when as many people as possible vibrate with the wishes of the Ninth Dimension and collaborate to realize "Earth, as a planet of love."

With love and gratitude,
Amarie

Chapter One

Earth - Its Past, Present, and Future

To All the People of Earth

I am Yahweh, as you call me.
From time immemorial, I have been looking after you.

But, I have not just simply been looking after you all.
I have been calling you in various ways.
Even if you haven't become aware of my voice,
I have been continuously calling out you.
But, unfortunately few people have become aware of this.

Now at this time, there is something very important to tell you.
To convey this I have decided to send out this book to be revealed in the world.
All the people of this planet are expected to read this.
And you yourselves have to choose how you want the future of Earth to be.

But not so much time remains until the final decision will be made.
Each one of you has to consider it as your own problem and judge it.
Don't forget all the things are up to the decision made by each of you, who lives on Earth.

The Earth's Past

Several billion years ago, planets jumped out from Sun. One of them was Earth. At the beginning, it was burning like a red fireball. It gradually became cool while it was going around Sun. Once Earth Spirit entered and dwelled in the planet, it eventually changed its color to a beautiful blue.

Initially there was no life at all on Earth. By the collaboration of Earth Spirit and space angels, known as aliens to you, lives were born on Earth. Lives spread over the planet to some extent, then Moon jumped out from Earth. Almost all of the lives on Earth died out at that time. But there still remained a small number of lives, and they rapidly grew and increased again so that Earth was filled with the living beings.

Earth itself is enriched with abundant water, compared to other planets. It means the planet can nurture many lives. Humans are included in among those many lives. Since ancient times, Earth has been nurturing various living beings, while changing the shapes of its own lands and seas. However, conceited humans had perceived themselves to be the only ruler of Earth, and eventually ruined many of civilizations. Each time, we started a new civilization and we guided the humans.

You would not know.

However, many aliens had flown to the planet far earlier than the first human appeared on Earth.

They devoted themselves to preparing the environment of Earth so that you can live on the planet.

Even now, they have been supporting you without being noticed.

They are the beings who always extend their hands to you and quietly watch the outcome of our civilization, taking notice of which direction Earth is going from here.

The Figure of Earth

You might think you yourself are a mere chunk of meat. But in truth, that is not so. You have to know you are an existence in which the eternal soul is dwelling. Soul itself is you, your true entity.

Equally, Earth is not just a lump of material. There is a body of the Earth Spirit residing inside. On the body of Earth Spirit, you have been experiencing various spiritual teachings. You might think you are the only ruler of Earth. But, you have to know you are kept alive by borrowing from this place we call Earth only for a while.

You humans are given free will. So whatever you do, or whatever you think, all is free. However, when a large number of people bear hate or hostility, a cloud of ill will cover over Earth. A place covered by a dark energy becomes something like a nest of sickness, and as a result the Earth suffers.

Do you know how he cures part of this sickness?

He simply shakes it off by just making himself quiver.

That falls on you as a cataclysm. In the past, it repeatedly occurred at the end of civilizations. Each time the land sank, and many humans lost their lives. You have to remind yourself the real cause is the accumulation of the energy of ill will you have accumulated.

Earth Spirit just endures the pain from it, and provides all the necessities for your learning. I think you should appreciate Earth Spirit for all the opportunities he gives you to learn and experience things.

The Time, Now

All the people living in modern times, how many of you really understand the significance of the age you are facing? You have to know you have been born here at this very important moment when the final settlement of the evolution of Earth is about to take place. Moreover, you yourself wished to be born on Earth now.

For most of you, everyday has passed just as usual, and you might naturally expect tomorrow to continue just as today. But, do not take it for granted. Each day given to you is very valuable and important. Don't waste the time without using it properly.

The future of Earth depends on how all of you live everyday. You might say you cannot believe it. But it is the unmistakable truth. I sent each of you to the ground, leaving the future of Earth to you.

There are some who believe that science is everything, through the development of science only in the past 200 years. Some might say the material world is everything and don't believe invisible things. People can forget something important, while pursuing the convenience of life.

Look at the people who are working in the so-called civilized countries in the world. Aren't they living while always rushing around doing something? Their minds are completely occupied without any leeway. Some have become habituated to live in those competitive situations. In these circumstances, how many people really lend a hand to their neighbors? Though most people see children suffering from starvation while living in poverty, they put aside the idea of saving them. Since when have people become so indifferent to other people?

Among the developing countries, some of them have worked hard and attained the development of industry. But they pollute the rivers, atmosphere, and harm human health. One might think throwing away what is unnecessary into the river will cause you no problems. But he or she has become indifferent to the fact that such water finally flows into the oceans and pollutes them.

It has been a long time since we have been alerted to the problem of global warming and reduction of CO₂ was declared. But, in reality you can't march together in the same steps. You only think of your own benefit, and don't care about other people. Such thoughts seem to have spread over the whole world. What do contemporary people feel when hearing the word, God? Some people are very faithful. But, many of you might laugh, saying it is just ridiculous. On the other hand, the sacred existence, which the very faithful people think of as god, might not be the real god. Of course, even though it is not the real god, I do believe their faith is very precious.

Once in the past, I was leading the people, saying I myself was God. But I am not the fundamental God. I am a human spirit possessing the same soul that you have. Only I am a little bit senior to you. On behalf of the younger souls I was teaching, as was my role, I was referring to myself as God. But that was the past. Now is the time to reveal to you the truth.

The Time of the Final Settlement

After Atlantis sank, we started up the present civilization. It was prescheduled that the time of the final settlement would come at the end of the twentieth century. Up until now, we have been guiding the ground from our heaven. My fellows such as Zeus, Moses, Buddha, Confucius, and Jesus, were born to the ground, and taught the law. Finally, it was determined that those laws to be gathered in the place, Japan.

And, as scheduled, the greatest spirit of light descended on the ground from heaven at the end of the 20th century. Although things were going well at the beginning, it seemed to have almost collapsed on the way. But, the bonding between the ground and heaven was rebuilt, and the laws that were to be conveyed were established at last.

All people of the world, receive the messages sent from Japan.

Each one of you has to decide whether to believe it or not.

What I want you to be careful of is that it should not be decided according to your experience attained in this life. Please ask deep in your mind.

You might think this life is everything. However, your real life is not that tiny. In the depth of your mind, all the experiences of your past lives have been stocked. Believe it, and in a calm thought, ask your mind. And get the answer by yourself.

In the will of love, take the hands of every person in the world, and help each other. We strongly wish that. I wish all the people of the world chose it by their own wills. You have to know, whether it can be done or not, now is the moment of the turning point.

The whole Earth is to step up to the next stage.

Aiming for it, we have been guiding you for a long time up until now.

Considering the age of Earth, it is about time to step up to the next stage. I want to graduate from the guidance for the younger spirits around now. I wish you to agree to this. I am not asking you to perform a difficult task. It is simple. Understand the truth and take hands with each other.

Future of the Earth

We want to actualize a planet of love, Earth.

All humans are children of God, and brothers and sisters to each other. Based on this understanding, each person's mind changes, and everything on Earth will change.

There are no inherent borders on the ground. Humans on the ground drew the lines by their own will. If you stop fighting and become friendly with each other, there would be no need for borders any more. We wish there will be a world wide united government, if possible.

Even now, there is no real shortage of food at all on Earth. The excess food should be transferred to the place where it is needed. It must be solved simply like that. It seems complicated because too many people are willing to become richer for their own sake. Feel joy to share everything with other people.

When you can step up to the next stage, your own body shall become lighter, removing the hard shell of material, like your present body. Although you may not be able to believe it, it will certainly come true. Even Earth itself will change.

Around that time, aliens, who have been watching you in silence up until now, will appear in your view. It means you, earth people are accepted as their companions. Although you might think the current level of your science is the best, it is simply the level of an elementary school. They have been long waiting for the time when they could teach you, their earth companions, the advanced science.

What shall you do when you obtained the knowledge of advanced science and technology? It is your turn to go out of this planet to offer your hand to other planets. Not all the planets are advanced. Be a helper for the ones who are behind.

There are no planets that have experienced no wars. The experience of war makes us understand its foolishness. Offer your hand to others fully utilizing your own experience. I wish it. Dreaming of Earth becoming such a planet, I have been guiding you all from ancient times.

When You Keep Going As Is

The current appearance of your civilization is quite similar to the last stage of Atlantis.

In the last stage of Atlantis an even more advanced science had been achieved. However, the human minds were corrupted. There is a strong similarity in minds between the present humans and those of Atlantis. In fact, it is not strange for some natural disaster or calamity to happen already at this point. It has been suspended; it has only been postponed.

If you do not alter your mind, but continue to keep it going as it is, you will welcome the same ending as Atlantis. Most of lands will sink deep into the sea. Many people will lose their lives. It will reach the end of the civilization. Only a few humans will remain to start the next civilization from the very primitive stage. Enduring unimaginably for a long time, we have to guide you, humans on the ground again.

I do not want to repeat such a thing. Do you understand my feeling? Now, let us go beyond to the next step, without continuing any thing of this sort.

I say once again.

The determination of the future of Earth is in your hands.
Look into the truth and decide by yourself.
